

I found 8 seeds in my slice of watermelon. Then I found  seeds. There are 10 seeds altogether.

Lesson 7

$$10 - 8 = \square$$

$$8 + \square = 10$$

©2015tunstallsteachingbits

I found 3 seeds in my slice of watermelon. Then I found  seeds. There are 13 seeds altogether.

Lesson 7

$$13 - 3 = \square$$

$$3 + \square = 13$$

©2015tunstallsteachingbits

I found 6 seeds in my slice of watermelon. Then I found  seeds. There are 10 seeds altogether.

Lesson 7

$$10 - 6 = \square \quad 6 + \square = 10$$

©2015tunstallsteachingbits

I found 4 seeds in my slice of watermelon. Then I found  seeds. There are 12 seeds altogether.

Lesson 7

$$12 - 4 = \square \quad 4 + \square = 12$$

©2015tunstallsteachingbits

I found 7 seeds in my slice of watermelon. Then I found  seeds. There are 15 seeds altogether.

Lesson 7

$$15 - 7 = \square \quad 7 + \square = 15$$

©2015tunstallsteachingtbits

I found 8 seeds in my slice of watermelon. Then I found  seeds. There are 15 seeds altogether.

Lesson 7

$$15 - 8 = \square \quad 8 + \square = 15$$

©2015tunstallsteachingtbits